Topic/Issue	Discussion	Action
CHAMP Update	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Katie provided an over of CHAMP and the Media training that was provided at the May RLA Council meeting. • We plan to send a follow up email to the RLA Council with a copy of the PowerPoint and request for groups to submit success stories to Dan B. and Nina by a specific date. • Success stories will be highlighted in the COI eNewsletter and will correlate with the launch of CHAMP. • Bayside or Little House in El Cajon could be back up stories. • Janet's intern is working to improve content for existing points on the map, Cheyenne, the COI intern can also help. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Nina draft message to the RLA Council as a follow up to Storytelling Training
RLA Council Training Opportunities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The RLA Council seemed interested in training on all of the topics mentioned during the meeting (social media, meet the funders, civic engagement, public speaking, facilitation skills, community mapping, and active transportation). • Dan agreed to follow up with Dana to schedule a social media training, in partnership with the Media Domain. • Additional recommendations included training RLA Council on how to clearly and succinctly write grants and finding data to back up your story and demonstrate your impact. • Bayside Community Group was identified as a great example of a group that is using the RLA as a way to continuously recruit and engage new volunteers. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Dan follow up with Dana about scheduling a social media training at the upcoming RLA Council meeting
Youth Advisory Board	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A youth advisory board presented at the Live Well North Central meeting and as a result, we wanted to discuss the potential for having a youth advisory board involved in the community domain and to support the Schools Domain and other domains as needed. • Blanca mentioned UCSD has a Youth Council, with approximately 15 students, and an additional 15 on the waitlist that could possibly support the domain. • Blanca recommended meeting with Amina to identify next steps. • South Bay and YMCA also have youth leadership groups that we could contact. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Brainstorm direction of the workgroup and other potential organizations to recruit at next meeting
